

Operation Feed: Operation Feed is the Food Collective's spring time campaign that engages the community to raise resources for fresh, healthy food to feed hungry families. This annual campaign provides tremendous team building opportunities for your leadership and associates in your organization.

Holiday Meals: The Holiday Meals campaign is the Food Collective's fall time initiative which engages your workplace to raise critically-needed funds to help us acquire and distribute more foods typically eaten during the holiday season. Turkeys, hams and so much more.

"Lettuce" help you plan your campaign! Please connect with us for more details and campaign resources.

